CAREER

I was doing some modeling at age 17 in Ukraine, working with a modeling agency on fashion, beauty, and accessories campaigns. Currently, living in Japan for two years and working as a freelance model for the past six months in Tokyo, appearing in photoshoots, film, and commercial productions. Previously performed as a backing vocalist for a music group while living in Europe. Multilingual, with a background in fashion and beauty modeling as well as performance arts.

I stay active through yoga, swimming, and scuba diving. Yoga keeps me flexible and centered, swimming builds endurance, and diving has taught me patience and calm under pressure — all things that carry over naturally into modeling work.
